Re: Castro, et al. v. Spice Place, et al., Index No. 07-CV-4657

Dear Mr. Eikenberry:

I write regarding the meeting we had yesterday in the hopes of resolving our differences regarding the subpoenas you have directed at the Attorney General and to certain former assistant attorneys general.

As we stated yesterday, the Attorney General has no objection to producing documents that the Attorney General obtained from the defendants in the above-captioned action. You indicated that you planned to write a letter to the defendants requesting that they withdraw their objections to depositions, as stated in the letter from Robert D. Lipman to the court dated July 3, 2008, insofar as such objections apply to the production of these documents. If defendants withdraw that particular objection, then the Attorney General will produce those documents.

As to the other issues, I regret that we could not agree. If you believe that anything in this letter is inaccurate or otherwise wish to address these issues, please contact me immediately.

Yours truly,

Joshua Pepper
Assistant Attorney General
